

Cello Instructor

ORGANIZATION: KCS (Korean Community Services)

POSITION TITLE: Cello Instructor

DEPARTMENT: NJ Education

REPORTS TO: Program Coordinator

ABOUT THE ORGANIZATION

Founded in 1973, KCS is a nonprofit 501(c)(3) multi-service organization dedicated to serving the Korean and greater community through social services, education, and cultural programs. Supported by government agencies, foundations, corporations, and individuals, KCS strives to provide impactful programs that meet the diverse needs of the community.

ABOUT THE POSITION

The NJ Education Department is seeking a talented and dedicated Cello Instructor to lead engaging music lessons for students in elementary school and above in Tenafly, NJ. The instructor will develop and teach a curriculum that introduces students to cello techniques, music theory, and performance skills. The ideal candidate will foster a supportive and inclusive learning environment while helping students build confidence and a love for music.

KEY RESPONSIBILITIES

- Teach engaging cello lessons tailored to students of varying ages and skill levels.
- Develop and implement a curriculum focused on cello technique, music theory, and performance.
- Demonstrate proper posture, bowing, fingering, and other playing techniques.
- Provide constructive feedback to support each student's musical growth.
- Foster a welcoming, inclusive, and structured classroom environment.
- Manage classroom behavior independently while encouraging creativity and teamwork.
- Set up and clean up the classroom before and after each lesson.
- Ensure proper care and organization of instruments and materials.
- Perform additional duties as assigned by the Program Coordinator.
